

WATCHERS TO
BE ORGANIZED MONDAYGOOD CITIZENS WILL MEET AT Y.
M. C. A. EVE OF ELECTION.

SHERIFF TO DEPUTIZE THEM

A final meeting of good citizens interested in obtaining a clean election in Marion county, November 1, will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building, Monday evening, to complete the organization of watchers at the polls of precincts where fraud has been attempted in the past. It is planned to enlist at least eight hundred watchers, who will be made deputy sheriffs by Sheriff George V. Coffin, so they will have authority to remove the polls without interference from the police or saloons.

Saloons to Be Watched.

Evidence will be gathered by watchers wherever fraud is attempted. Watchers also will be stationed in the vicinity of notorious saloons suspected of planning to do business election day.

Preliminary meetings have been held for the last two weeks and many watchers already have volunteered. The movement started after a committee of citizens had visited L. B. Slack, United States district attorney, and Sheriff Coffin, who gave assurance they will assist the good citizens in every way possible to prevent fraud at the polls.

Movement is Nonpartisan.

The clean election movement is purely nonpartisan, men of all parties belonging to it, and adherents of all denominations are taking part in the plans. The ministers of Indianapolis are interested in the movement, and many will attend the meeting Monday night, and will bring delegations from their congregations with them. The fact that the volunteer watchers will be deputized will give them power to interfere with any flagrant attempts to violate the law.

WILL OBSERVE HOME COMING

Roberts Park Methodist Episcopal Church Plans Event.

Home-coming day will be observed tomorrow at the Roberts Park M. E. church, and it is expected that many former members of the church will return to be present at the services. The Rev. George R. Smith will preach at the morning service on "Home-Coming Christians," and at the evening service on "Between Two Opinions."

Dr. Smith sent a pastoral letter last week to many members and friends of the church, in which he said: "We take this day of extending to you most cordial greetings and kindly urge you to attend and participate in the services of this day and help to make this not only an outstanding occasion in the history of Roberts Park church, but a day presiding a period of unusual Christian activity in this historic church, where we face the task of building upon the works of many distinguished and noble laymen and a long line of very able pastors, with kind and special mention of Dr. Hurlstone."

Play to Be Given at Church.

Rehearsals for "The Splinters Convention," a play which will be given at the Roberts Park church, Monday, at 8 p. m.,

Forget Party and Vote for Men

Regardless of party affiliations, the underworld, composed of lawless saloon keepers, brothel keepers and their like, are going to vote against RUCKER, COFFIN and HAYES next Tuesday.

When it comes to a matter of electing local officials, the bad element stands as a unit against honest and conscientious candidates.

"Get Rucker" is the terse order that goes down the line. And never a man stops to ask if Rucker is a Republican or a Democrat.

It is enough for them to know that he is against their crooked crowd.

The order to beat these men has gone forth—from political boss down to gutter-snipe and brazen jade.

The responsibility for electing good men to office rests upon every good citizen in Indianapolis.

The man who deliberately fails to vote right next Tuesday will forfeit his right to demand good local government.

There are more good citizens in Indianapolis than bad ones, but

BAD ONES HANG TOGETHER AND TOO OFTEN GOOD ONES HANG APART.

It is absolutely imperative that all good men stand together next Tuesday.

They say: "These men have fought our gang to a standstill—and stopped our graft and smashed our schemes—and have hurt the business of our backers."

For this they must be defeated.

This is a time for all good citizens to forget party affiliations and vote for RUCKER, COFFIN and HAYES because they have served the community honestly and conscientiously.

If a ballot must be scratched in order to cast a vote for these men—then scratch.

There are enough red-blooded, upstanding men in Marion county to do this job and do it right.
